Re: Travel Request - United States v. Yarisons Concepcion, 19 Cr. 476 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams,

I represent Yarisons Concepcion in the above-mentioned case. Mr. Concepcion is currently released on bail. He graduated from YAOP on March 2nd and has been in full compliance with his supervision.

Unfortunately, Mr. Concepcion's father passed away over the weekend after a battle with Covid-19. I respectfully ask the Court to modify Mr. Concepcion's bail conditions so that he may travel to Puerto Rico from May 3, 2021 to May 9, 2021 to attend funeral services for his father. If our application is granted, Mr. Concepcion will be staying with his mother while in Puerto Rico and will share his complete itinerary with Pretrial Services Officer Rena Bolin.

Officer Bolin has no objection to this request and the government, through AUSA Peter Davis, defers to Pretrial. Additionally, the Court has previously approved international travel to the Dominican Republic in February of this year and Mr. Concepcion returned without issue.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Christopher Madiou
Counsel for Yarisons Concepcion

Application granted.

Cc: AUSA Peter Davis (via ECF)
U.S. Pretrial Services Officer Rena Bolin (via email)

SO ORDERED.
